So this is how it's working out
I've been lying to myself
A few more days and I'll have to say goodbye

I need you now
I need your touch
Cause this picture's not enough
To help me fall asleep tonight
(Just tonight)

I'll be holding on even when your gone
And I'll be waiting, you know I'm
Waiting for you to make your move

So pick your price, so say goodbye
I'd walk this earth a thousand times
For one more night by your side
So I can see your smile

Tell me that your coming home
I wish we had more time
So I can let you know
Darling I'll be waiting
For you to come back home

You and I, we're one alike
I never thought this is how we'd
Say goodbye
Forever's not too long if I'm waiting
For you
(Waiting for you)

I need you now
I need your touch
Cause this picture's not enough
To help me fall asleep tonight

I'll be holding on even when your gone
And I'll be waiting, you know I'm
Waiting for you to make your move

So pick your price, So say goodbye
I'd walk this earth a thousand times
For one more night by your side
So I can see your smile

Just one more time
By your side
I'd do anything
Just to see you smile

Tell me that your coming home
I wish we had more time
So I can let you know
Darling I'll be waiting for you
To come back home

This feeling will never change
This city will never be the same
Without you
