Whatever happened to you
Telling the truth
Now this will be the hardest
Thing that I'll do
This conversation is getting old
Just so you know I thought
The world of you

Why couldn't you let me know
That you were begging for attention
Cause I wouldn't have let you go
(I need to leave this light obsession)

To hold you down
To watch you drown
I'm taking back
Every breath I've wasted on you

Whatever happened to the person you were
This war between us has been tearing us apart
My hands are stained, what can I do
This is the only thing that I have left

Why couldn't you let me know
That you were begging for attention
Cause I wouldn't have let you go
(I need to leave this light obsession)

To hold you down
To watch you drown
So lay back
(And watch me take this from you)

Let's make this count tonight
We'll turn out every light
Don't let me go, just let me take over
Don't let me take your time
Don't let me down

Let's make this count tonight
We'll turn out every light

Til you show me what you got

I gave you everything you asked
But now I'm taking it back
Oh!

Let's make this count tonight
We'll turn out every light
Don't let me go, just let me take over
Don't let me take your time
Don't let me down
Let's make this count tonight
We'll turn out every light
Til you show me what you've got
And now there's nothing left

I'm taking back every promise I made
You can count on me
I'm taking back every promise I made
You can count on me for nothing
(X2)
