How'd this teardrop start a fire? must've thought about you i better not do this better not do that my rivers gush green

oh how did this happen?
better not rush it better not crush it
so it won't disappear

you should get away from me this is too much chemistry you better not miss me better not diss me when she's around you can't let that happen i better not crave you, cause i can't save you you're here as you'll ever be

i didn't mean to do it i didn't mean to love you i didn't mean to chant it so all the ways i can not want you, you know pouring salt back in the wound put your full weight on me...

i better not call back give me a quick slap maybe i'll slam my teeth on your heart better not obsess better not forget
i'm rich as i'll ever be
