Butterfly on the wall slow pace in the hall cobblestone beneath my feet walking down a one way street bell ringing on the square moon shining in my hair traintracks and fireflies silent smelling in the air it's the city of me
yeah, ooh

first kiss come and gone girl is full and grown sweetness blooming into love first love is come and gone

the subtle strength that's inside
is the fortress of my pride and even though i try to hide in the city i reside
the subtle strength that's inside
and even though i tried to hide
in the city i reside

ooh

grown and gone away
new faces everyday
but i won't betray it, no my heart will always stay in the city of me
ooh
