You like to look at the stars...
You know the constalations...
And you'd show me with that smile...
A smile that's worth a while...

Every little thing that you do...
Release me from my blue...
And all the little things that you do...
So lovely and i love you...

You look so bright tonight...
Each time that i lie, touches your eyes...
I wish this moment to stay...
I wouldn't want it to go away...

'coz every little thing that you do...
Release me from my blue...
All the little thing that you do...

So lovely and i love you...

I look up to the skies...
Imagine you will recess my mind...
I knew it from the start..
You belong here in my heart...
In my whole world... oh yeah...

Wooohh... oh yeahhh....

'coz every little thing that you do...
Release me from my blue...
And all the little things that you do...
So lovely and i love you...

You like to look at the stars...
You know the constalations...
And you'd show me with that smile...
A smile that's worth a while...
