You You

Please leave me alone
I'm out on my own and I'm trying to figure out
How to live without you in my life
I'm just tryin to make you see
You keep me hangin on knowin that you're doin me
wrong
My world just falls apart knowing that you're breaking my heart
Because

I can't stop loving you
No matter what I do
And all the pain that I go through's for you
It's torture what you do
The pain you put me through
'cause everything that I do I do it for you

Please don't try to pretend that your love's not ended if it's lyin'
Would you do this to me
For all that it's worth 'cause I'm the one that hurts Baby why can't you let me be
You keep me hangin on knowin that you're doin me
wrong
Please don't try to pretend 'cause our love has come to an end

I can't stop loving you
No matter what I do
And all the pain that I go through's for you
It's torture what you do
The pain you put me through
'cause everything that I do I do it for you

You keep me hangin on knowin that you're doin me
wrong
My world just falls apart knowing that you're breaking
my heart
Because

I can't stop loving you
No matter what I do
And all the pain that I go through's for you
It's torture what you do
The pain you put me through
'cause everything I do I do it for you

I can't stop loving you
No matter what I do
All the pain that I go through's for you
It's torture what you do
The pain you put me through
