When I lose, I'm gonna do what I gotta do
To make you mine

I can't let you get away
Can't go another day if I don't make you mine

When I lose, girl I choose to do what I have to
To get next to you
All I need to make me complete is your love
Tell me what should I do

I remember that special night (when I)
When I couldn't believe my eyes (my eyes)
There was the man of my dreams starin' back at me
In my heart I knew this thing was right

Just gotta make you mine
Baby you know this just isn't right
For me to let you get away
Can't go another day if I don't make you mine

I can't believe that you don't see
I can't think of anything but you and me
Hope you know it would change my world
If you said you'd be my girlfriend

I get weak when you look my way (my way)
Searching for the right words to say (to say)
So you step out of my dreams, share your love with me
And realize that my love's here to stay

Just gotta make you mine

Just gotta make you mine
Baby you know this just isn't right
For me to let you get away
Can't go another day if I don't make you mine

Just gotta make you mine
You gotta be mine
I need you before the end of time

Gotta make you mine
Just gotta make you mine
You gotta be mine
I need you before the end of time

Just gotta make you mine
Baby you know this just isn't right
For me to let you get away
Can't go another day if I don't make you mine

Just gotta make you mine
Baby you know this just isn't right
For me to let you get away
Can't go another day if I don't make you mine...
