Verse 1

First of all you should know that I am over you its okay but then again I never thought I would make it to this day After everything we've been through I finally know the truth

(Chorus)

What goes around, comes around and will come back to you And how you treat your brother man will pay you back in full and for every seed you will sow
I just thought that you should know Hmmm hmmm heyyeah

Verse 2

Life aint always fair I know,
But I'm over that it's okay With all the goodness and all the grace could not lead me to this day and I wish you love and life my friend because I know in the end that

(Chorus)

What goes around, comes around
and will come back to you And how you treat your sister friend
will pay you back in full and for every seed that you must
I just thought that you should know

Call it what you want to But a rose by any other name is still that flower just the same Take anything you need to but don't make believe the world is how you see it, No No No hey,

(Chorus)

What goes around, comes around

And how you treat your fellow man
will pay you back in full
and for every seed you will sow
I just thought that you outta know

They say what's goes around comes around yeah yeah yeah and I believe what they say What goes around, comes around
What goes around, comes around
And they say what goes up must come down Call it what you want to, what goes around comes around
Call it what you want to, what goes around comes
Call it what you want to, what goes around comes
Call it what you want to, what goes around comes
