I see you looking through your shadey shades
I know your watching as you walk away
Why don't you wipe that smile off your face
It feels like a familiar place

Easy with the ladies
Burning up like blazies
Eyes are getting lazy
Tell me that I'm crazy
On your best behavior
Or off to get some flavor

I just got one question
Is there anything you forgot to mention?

Always too good to be true
Keep your eyes closed
Happening right in front of you
And everybody knows
That's just how it goes down
I should've of seen it right from the
Seen it right from the start, oh oh oh

I can be down with your dirty
But not if your flirty
You see I know what you be up to Papa I used to play to

This what you losers
Doing what you chooses
Bringing them excuses
Coming home with bruises
Your making all this tention
I think I need a sestion

I just got one question
Is there anything you forgot to mention?

Always too good to be true
Keep your eyes closed
Happening right infront of you
And everybody knows

That's just how it goes down
I should of see it right from the
See it right from the start, oh oh oh

I don't do what good for me, good for me
Just tell me, can I take you seriously, seriously
If it feels like everytime it's just the same, just the same
You wanna bring it, play it back again, back again

Oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh
Oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh

Always too good to be true
Keep your eyes closed
Happening right infront of you
And everybody knows
That's just how it goes down
I should of see it right from the
See it right from the start, oh oh oh

I don't do what good for me, good for me
Just tell me, can I take you seriously, seriously
If it feels like everytime it's just the same, just the same
You wanna bring it, play it back again, back again

Always too good to be true (I don't do what's good for me)
Keep your eyes closed
Happening right infront of you (Can I take you seriously)
And everybody knows
That's just how it goes down (everytime it's just the same)
I should of see it right from the
See it right from the start, oh oh oh

Always too good to be true (I don't do what's good for
me)
Keep your eyes closed
Happening right infront of you (Can I take you
seriously)
And everybody knows
That's just how it goes down (everytime it's just the
I should of see it right from the
See it right from the start, oh oh oh
