Light a candle by my window
So you see I'm home
Do you ever stop outside my window
If you do then I'm watching the candle too
If you do then I'm watching it too

We are watching the same thing
All over
And all ready
I feel closer
Watching the same thing all over
All ready
I feel closer
And all ready
I feel young and all
Ready
I feel stronger
Close... notes rhythm and rhyme
It's all in my mind but what isn't

Put a painting by my window
So you see I've grown
I've learned to paint the world as I like as you told
Put a painting by my window
So you see I've grown
I've grown from a girl to a woman
I've grown Attached to the wood by my window Attached to the wood by my window

And we're watching the same thing
All over

Ready...
