Along the big city walls I walked for a while looking for that face
I always recognize
hello hello
it's been a while ages ago
but your voice still feels

this it what they call
big city love
just play it by heart
'cause I believe in true love this is what they call big city love play it by heart
though it's a sad sad call

this it what they call,
big city love

there's no where to fall along the city walls

And all the letters that you wrote

I want them all gone
I send them back to you with a red heart on them and in my memories I'll try erasing you for good and all the hopes I had projected on you

was looking for

a place to hide away, to hide away instead I lost, instead I lost the heart I gave away,
oh we sang those songs
sang those songs
you comfort me you comfort me and now and now
let's call it destiny

This is what they call
play it by heart
play it by heart
because I believe in true love
