He used to be hilarious
Before he lost his sense of... fun.
Now he says,
Now he says God is consciousness
No wonder we get lost, all of us.
And I say,
We're with stars soon precious
And this world is just a process... ain't it?
He has,
Nightmares about the desert sand
Where he puts out his hands up

He says,
Who-who, who cares at all
Who started it, who started it?
He says,
Who-who, who's strong enough
To stop it all, to stop it all?
Who-who, who cares at all
Who started it, who started it?
Who-who, who's strong enough
To stop it all, who started it?

Now I'm not strong enough to stop the bombs
So they keep on falling,
Only got my hand, to protect me with.
Now even in seven grade, they said that violence
Brings out the beast in your enemy.
And the ministry sings out,
They sing out Jesus
And he probably, would agree with me.
And the ministry yells out
Sings out Jesus
They probably, would agree with me.

Who-who, who cares at all
Who started it, who started it?
He says,
Who-who, who's strong enough
To stop it all, to stop it all?
Who-who, who cares at all

Who started it, who started it?
Who-who, who's strong enough
To stop it all, who started it?

Can you stop, can you stop, can you stop it all?
Who cares anymore who started it?
Can you stop, can you stop, can you stop it all?
Who cares anymore who started it?

Who-who, who cares at all
Who started it?

And the ministry yells out...
Who started it, who cares at all who started it?
