Fast Forward by Lali Puna I'm going Fast forward Alone in the dark There's no one around me by my side When you put your hands over your ears You don't hear me When you cover your eyes You don't see me It's like I've never been here And you've never known me They're leaving I'm staying inside me It's never been so quiet never so clean When you put your hands over your ears You don't hear me When you cover your eyes You don't see me It's like I've never been here And you've never known me
