I'm walking down by the river
And coming up on this "one way street"
And what I see makes me shiver
For nothing is what it used to be
It fades away-
That old tree, yester playgrounds
It fades away in the wind
And that you always be...

My little angel
The sweetest thing that I ever seen
You were my little angel
We didn't let nothing come between
And that time had no danger
Games in the dark of a lonely park
You were my little angel
Who saved me in this world from getting hurt

The empty hall by the schoolyard
And all the songs that we used to hear
Is like a dream on a postcard
My childhood love then
Has dissapeared
It fades away-
That old tree, yester playgrounds
It fades away in the wind
But you will always be?

My little angel
The sweetest thing that I ever seen
You were my little angel
We didn't let nothing come between
And that time had no danger
Games in the dark of a lonely park
You were my little angel
Who saved me in this world from getting hurt

Run- keep running away
You know it's too late
From
Don't cry about yesterday

Friends they come and they go
But where is the meaning?
Yeah, why is that so?

But you will always be..My little angel
The sweetest thing that I ever seen
You were my little angel
We didn't let nothing come between
And that time had no danger
Games in the dark of a lonely park
You were my little angel
Who saved me in this world from getting hurt
