Here's all I really know
In this life
Love's all we have to give
Seems like the more
I struggle on this earth
The more completely I live

In a world where mediocrity rules
Bodies collide
Without a moment of emotion
Scared hearts run and hide
Behind closed minds
And we all lose our way

Let me be
Let me be the moon and stars for you
Let me be your sky of blue
Let me be
Let me be the sun and moon for you
Let me be your sky of blue

The winter clouds
Are stuck in the...
Packing nothing away
Darkness is creeping up
On all our dreams
To wipe them clean away

Building boxes around our lives
Compartments for
Each and every feeling
Freedom lost with our innocence
Forgotten long ago

Let me be
Let me be the moon and stars for you
Let me be your sky of blue
Let me be
Let me be the sun and moon for you
Let me be your sky of blue

Your sky of blue
That's all I really know
In this life
Here's all I want to be
Seems like the more
I wander on this earth
The more I'm left to me

In a world where fever moves
Souls could collide
And make the sweetest music
Warm hearts not so scared
In open minds
And we won't lose our way
