Boy you had a dream that one day she would fly
High above the city streets
Now she's so much older gazing at the sky
Learn the lessons only life can teach

And she walks
For miles she walks
Yeah she walks
Yes she walks

And she walks
For miles she walks
Yeah she walks
Yes she walks

Each and every pavement rises up to find
Feet that know the way is long
Office blocks and pawn shops slipping through her mind
Help to keep the memories going

Glorious still feels it
Though it's hiding in each step

And she walks
For miles she walks
Yeah she walks
Yes she walks

And she walks
For miles she walks
Yeah she walks
Yes she walks

And she walks
For miles she walks
Yeah she walks
Yes she walks
Yes she walks
