Skipping time and life is all aglow
Everything looks brighter than before
In my heart a fire burns oh so strong
And i know this time it's here to stay
Ooh
My ears hear every sound
And now my eyes can see
I can leave and not look back
This son has greater arms that hold me
This son has greater arms that hold me
Breathing fresh air I feel a new day dawn
Heaven's open precious life reborn
Knowing from much deeper than the mind
Nothing's two and everything is one
Ooh
My ears hear every sound
And now my eyes can see
I can leave and not look back
This son has greater arms that hold me
This son has greater arms that hold me
My ears hear every sound
And now my eyes can see
Ooh
I can leave and not look back
This son has greater arms that hold me
This son has greater arms that hold me
This son has greater arms that hold me
This son has greater arms that hold me
