

Lamb Of God "set to fail"

You wanna hate me, for the way you hate yourself.
You think you can find out who you are in someone else
Criticizing somebody, your never ending possessioning,
Youve got a long way to go!

So go and weave your tale alone,
Convincing yourself it's true!
Your so set to fail!
So when you finally lost your way

A nameless heir of paranoid despair,
You take great measures to appear like you don't care,
Percision and persuasion must proceed so perfectly!
You lost it before you began.

So go and weave your tale alone,
Convincing yourself it's true!
Your so set to fail!
So when you finally lost your way

(Guitar solo)

So go and weave your tale alone,
Convincing yourself it's true!
Your so set to fail!
So when you finally lost your way

So when you fianlly lost your way
Your so set to fail!
