Oh, Ohio
Seems like a dream to me now
Newspapers in an empty basket
And I know all will show

I wrote your name
Upon a paper bag
Brown today and green tomorrow

Green doesn't matter
Yeah, green doesn't matter
And I hear that the word is out
And a dog's gotta do what a dog's gotta do

Green doesn't matter
Yeah, green doesn't matter
When you're blue

Busting my chops
Green fields into rocks
Beyond the fruited plain
Where there grows no fruit again

And I got your theme
Inside my head

Green doesn't matter
Green doesn't matter
Green doesn't matter much

Yeah, green just doesn't matter much
And green doesn't matter
When you're blue
