I ain't much of a speaker.
I don't believe in god.
I don't have a political point of view.

Why is it cool to mean something?
Devote your lives to a single thing?
I don't care about anything,
And I've got nothing to worry about.

Cause I got no good opinion.
I got no "wonderful ideology".
Why vote for politicians,
When all they say are lies?
Why think that they can solve your problems?

I don't like the way you think.
You're so infected in many ways.
I don't bow for anyone,
And I've got no one to hold me down.
