This speech is for you
Twenty-four
A son and a daughter
It's just that you are not here anymore
Just another half a year to Twenty-five
Half a golden life together
You will be golden forever

You left us treasures
You left us friends

We are still your sons and daughters
If it's okay

Bread at my wedding
Though you were weak
You taught about life together
As if I was your daughter
And he your son
Twenty-four
Years is a lifetime together
But way too short
What you gave will last forever

You left us treasures
You left us friends

We are still your sons and daughters
If it's okay

The Silver is for you
Twenty-four
Feels like so much more
So much less
