Close your eyes and count to three
This could not be happening
Make a note of every wrong turn taken
Well yeah regression takes it's toll
You still say young but feel so old
Your life is wearing like a broken bound book

November leaves won't fall
'Cause December stole them all
Well, I guess it's all my fault
I fell frozen one season

Please give me one more chance
Oh I know I don't deserve this
But I swear I won't forget
If you just let it be spring again
Please, let it be spring again

So you try to make a sound
Only whispers come out
As the tears begin to trace you skin
Watch your eyes caress the sky
Enjoy another sleepless night
As you retrace the steps that brought you so far,
Away

November leaves won't fall
'Cause December stole them all
Well, I guess it's all my fault
I fell frozen one season

Please give me one more chance
Oh I know I don't deserve this
But I swear I won't forget
If you just let it be spring again
Please, let it be spring again

It's all out of my hands now
It's all out of my hands now
It's all out of my hands now
It's all out of my hands

November leaves won't fall
'Cause December stole them all
Well, I guess it's all my fault
If you just let it be spring again

Please give me one more chance
Oh I know I don't deserve this
But I swear I won't forget
If you just let it be spring again
November leaves won't fall
'Cause December stole them all
Well, I guess it's all my fault
I fell frozen one season

Please give me one more chance
Oh I know I don't deserve this
But I swear I won't forget
If you just let it be spring again
Please, let it be spring again
Let it be spring again
