"September"

spring wept its bitter tears of rain and we all know that youre the one to blame i dont want to hear anymore keep walking until you are out the door dont worry yeah ive been doing fine your concerts brings the stick compared to mine we used to be so careless but i think i care enough just to be there fall wept its bitter tears of rain and you have finally got your taste of pain that day i got all your letters its funny you never wrote when things were better dont worry youve been doing fine

your concerts brings the stick compared to mine

remember that september
keep it in your mind as a cherished memory when i did everything for you and you did nothing for me

your concerts brings the stick compared to mine
care enough just to be there
