Don't drink when you're tired
just watch those gems
they catch everything
like the light

and what would become if we never moved
just lost and loose
like the light

hey hey
as she keys you
and she knees you
you wonder how we could ever get back

why would we so close to stay inside
scared, locked
to never come out

(both sections repeat)

we never make any money why would we try
ooooh
bear us away on a wing
on a wing....

(chorus out)
