Iâll see the end of time
Over and over in your eyes tonight
When all my memories
And dreams are pictures of my life

Games of fantasy
An eternal freedom
Hidden inside of me
Live in my eyes
Iâll search the power
In this ivory sky
Like a prisoner of time
Iâm the lord of my life
In a point of no return
In this apocalypse

We are all victims of the same details
The labyrinth in your eyes
Has broken the connection with time
Remember all that bright emotions
You saw in my eyes everytime you look too far

When I feel that end is near
I destroy my reality
So my self-control becomes for me
A kind of hypnosis
There isnât any certainty
In a circle of unreality
Images behind my dreams
Connections for a new eternity...
When secrets will be free
By all kinds of tyranny
I will draw an image of me
Free from every hypocrisy
There isnât certainty
Only another piece of me
Like a scream against the wind
Tonight another reality...
