A summer rain is passing over
And it feels like a dream
I could run and look for shelter
But you hold onto me

I'm under your skies
I'm caught in your eyes
Don't you know you stop the room
And all that I can see is you
I'm standing where the lightning strikes
I know this doesn't happen twice
You must be my once in a lifetime, in a lifetime
You must be my once in a lifetime

There's so much that I have told you
But it's all in my head
Ask me anything you want to
'Cause the answer is yes
I'll spend my whole life
Just being caught up in your eyes
Don't you know you stop the room
And all that I can see is you
I'm standing where the lightning strikes
I know this doesn't happen twice
You must be my once in a lifetime, in a lifetime
You must be my once in a lifetime
So before the storm has passed
I just want to ask
Can we make this moment last?
So before the storm is passed
I just want to ask
Can we make this moment last? (moment last?)

Da da da da da da da da da da da da da da da

Don't you know you stop the room
And all that I can see is you
I'm standing where the lightning strikes
I know this doesn't happen twice
You must be my once in a lifetime, in a lifetime
You must be my once in a lifetime
