Her beauty is blinding but she means nothing wrong
She's looking for love just like I am
Amazing in the sunlight, a gift for a man
She's looking for love just like I am

Just like I am, like I am, just like I am, I am

Hey hey
All the best intentions are no match for your skin
Hey hey
Well how am I supposed to love you if I don't even know you

She walks in the shadow of a beauty so bright
But she's looking for love just like I am An obvious blessing but a curse in disguise when you're looking for love

Just like I am like I am just like I am I am

Hey hey
All my best intentions are no match for your skin
Hey hey
You know I thought I knew what love was but sometimes
I get confused
Sometimes I get confused yeah, sometimes I get confused yeah??

Hey hey
All my best intentions are no match for your skin
Hey hey
And how am I supposed to know you if I can't even love
you

Hey hey
Hey hey
Hey hey
