I guess I lost this time around and I guess I figured out all the games we tried to play I guess I won but lost in time and I hope you realized all the games we tried to play Lets just figure it out we can talk all day think a lot about all these things we say cause it's only five months away lets just figure it out we can talk all day waste our time with stupid things we say cause five months is so far away now where do we go and where has it been when our time has all been spent I go back holding on to dreams well this time I can't this time it's the same I'm gonna tell you everything cause you're my little miracle
