Here alone again I shouldn't be thinking of you thinking of me I know you're not who you should be I know you're not who you want me to be thanks for it all I gotta go the times been spent we shouldn't show all of our thoughts what we believe I'm done for now can't you see I'm relieved well you moved on you don't need gone hope he's got more if not oh well gycss you'll show him the door an dI know it's gone and I know you're gone and I know it doesn't matter now to me you see and I'm happy that you're fine with it all
