wish i was your child hold me in your heart we could love so free and know it never die but i am not a child and wishes are just child's play
my love

no i never be afraid of who i am and who i am not come what may wish i was a bird i warmed you with my wings safe from all the storm you know true love can bring but i am not a bird and wishes and just fly away

la la la

but i am not the voice shinning in your eyes and your the star

no we never be afraid of who we are
and who were not come what may

 (sang duet with Herb Alpert)
