I let myself get off
On loving you
I never stopped to ask myself
What I was getting into
I just let love get it's hold on me
And I followed it
Faithfully

You see, so many nights I cried
Until my eyes were sore
You see, so many times I promised myself
I ain't gonna cry no more

After I cry tonight
Honey, I'm through
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
Loving you
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
After I cry
Cry my eyes out all night long
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
I'll stop feeling blue

I can't spend the rest of my life
Girl, trying to forget
'Cause each night that we're apart
I keep getting more and more and more upset
I might just as well fact the fact
'Cause you ain't never coming back

I tried to give you time
Tried my best to wait
If you change your mind tomorrow
Girl it's just too late

After I cry tonight
Honey, I'm through
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
Loving you
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
After I cry
Cry my eyes out all night long

I'll find someone new
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)

Still in love with you baby
Oh girl, I just can't see you no more
You had me too weak to fight, baby...

You see, so many nights I cried
Until my eyes were sore
You see, so many times I promised myself
I ain't gonna cry no more

After I cry tonight
Honey, I'm through
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
Loving you
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
After I cry
Cry my eyes out all night long
I'll find someone new
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
(Ain't gonna cry no more, babe)
