When I'm all alone
When I'm feelin blue
No one understands me baby
Nobody but you Through all the sleepless nights and rainy days jealous sun the wind and you
The only way I made it through Is when I come to you And in my darkest hour when the midnight shadows fall Baby you got the power to make the angels come to call Yeah well I just hold you in my arms and let the music in my heart play the whole night through And baby I feel so brand new Yeah, when I come to you
When I come to you
Oh you make me feel alright
When I come to you
You keep me from the howlin wind Baby I feel brand new
When I come to you
