Listen up to your mother, brother, sister Listen up to your father
Listen up to the Lord

They apparently know every single answer, every fact and figure in the whole damn world

But there's something different today
There's something you just want to say

Hey, don't look down on me
I'm not a big baby
I'm not your mirror anymore
Hey, don't look down on me
with your philosophies
Hey, save your dogma
I've had enough

Do you know it all? Don't you...

Is your life only what you read today in The New York Times?
Is what you read in your magazines?
Is what you read in your books?

Whatever happened to good old-fashioned experience?
Whatever happened to living?
Whatever happened to you?

That you need to condescend
No longer my good friend

Hey, don't look down on me
I'm not a big baby
I'm not your mirror anymore
Hey, don't look down on me

with your philosophies
Hey, save your dogma
Iâ€™ve had enough

Do you know it all?
No, you donât...
