Echo says, that heroes mean nothing
Echo says, there's nothing original to say
Emulation is the only answer
In platitudes and quotes that rhyme

She's lost all faith
She says the truth don't mean nothing
An empty space in heart and mind
It makes a stomach drop
It's a hard way to live your life

Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
Where there's nothing left to say
Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
All your heroes gone away
She'll get you
Echo says

Forget your dreams, girl
It's just a set-up, man
You think she's pretty in pink
But she's not who you think she is
It must be fate
That your heroes mean nothing
Emancipate, free your mind
It makes a stomach drop
It's a hard way...
It make you now regurgitate this thing called pop
It's your only life

I'm on a quest for her

Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
All your heroes gone away
She'll get you
Echo says that heroes mean nothing

You know who you look like?
Who?
Come on, do you know who you look like?
No, who?
Come on, it's a movie star...shit...
Wait, I got it...

Glamour they sold you
Platitudes and quotes that rhyme
Adopt every attitude
Champions explode in time
So, throw away everything
Yeah, I know what they told you
I know what they sold to you

Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
Miss Myth America
All your heroes gone away
She'll get you
Echo says...
All your heroes gone
