Everytime i wake in the morning i see something different in your eyes there is something strange in the moonlight can i see your smile again would you buy me the moon would you buy me
everything
and put into my arms

i'm full of stupid desires
how can i stop to cry
when i'm full of stupid desires that doesn't mean that would you buy me the stars would you buy me the moonlight would you see me for a while just like a i am

just like i am just

would you buy me
would you sing to me my love
