Verse 1

Everybody, and the way they look at me
Like I'm some kind of rebel
What do they know about my life
And the world I'm living
You know that people, are allowed their freedom, and identity
Don't let 'em tie you to the railings of conformity

Chorus

Rise up from the ways
(Rise up from the ways)
To a higher place
(To a higher place)
See the skies above
(See the skies above)
What was once beloved!

Verse 2

Take me to the angels, see what the good book says
Take me to the farmers, for the good lands sake

Take me to the land where a woman can be who she can
Is there anything left to die for Prophets and Martyrs, I heard IT ALL BEFORE
IS there anything left to believe in anymore?

Chorus

Verse 3

In the city, the melody can get so low
In the city, the people seem to walk so slow
Just remember, there's a place inside, we all need to go

Chorus

Adlib

(Take me to a higher place)
(Take me to the land where a woman can be who she can)
