Do you know how much time it took to
Build the nerve to finally call you?
Only to find out
That you had gone far away
There was something i held onto
You're gone so what can i do?
Just to see you're face
Would make it all okay
You left me last summer (i wonder)
Is there something i forgot to say?
Now i am left here to suffer
Do you feel the same way?
And now i find out
That i can't make it here on my own
So tell me when did i
Lose control?
What have i done?
You can find i'll be gone for awhile
Im gone...im gone...im gone
Every day i would watch you walk by
And every second just seemed to fly by
Lost in the thought
Of you and i eternally
Crushed again i start to pray that
Someday you will finally come back
Do you realize
What you meant to me?
You left me last summer (i wonder)
Is there something i forgot to say?
Now i am left here to suffer
Do you feel the same way?
Cause now i find out
That i can't make it here on my own
So tell me when did i
Lose control?
What have i done?
You can find i'll be gone for awhile
Im gone...im gone...im gone
(gone for way to long
