"Let Down"

Something's gonna be missin
But you already knew
A blinded premanition
Is long overdue

You say you know
But you dont know
Because all these actions show
There's no more room to grow
It wouldnt be for the first time
So save yourself from your own lines
So pick me up your my big let down

And I'm trying hard to Get this message through
You're relying on
Someone who left you

You say you know
But you dont know
Because all these actions show
There's no more room to grow
It wouldnt be for the first time
So save yourself from your own lines
So pick me up your my big let down
