I'm on top of the world today
But I, I'm just letting you know
Because I'm not sure of the world today
But I, I don't let it show

Because all my life
I've searched for something true
And all this time
I always thought you knew
This is my favorite place
And you're my favorite face
This is my favorite place
And you're my favorite face

I figure now's a good time to say
That I, have to let this go
Another dream that we let die has left us feeling so hollow

Because all my life
I've searched for something true
And all this time
I always thought you knew
This is my favorite place
And you're my favorite face
This is my favorite place
And you're my favorite face
(This side of the road ain't big enough)
This is my favorite place
And you're my favorite face
This is my favorite place
And you're my favorite face
I'm ready to go
