Faster, heading straight for disaster
All my wishes unheard Cause its our time, our time down here

I go where ever I please
And I don't worry about anyone but me
So far so good this is the best thing I found So come along I'll take you down And fall away

Faster, heading straight for disaster
All my wishes unheard cause its our time, our time
down here

Times running short so lets go
And no one's gonna understand the things that we both know
They can't stop us cause it's too late now
So play it hard and sing it loud
And do it this way

Faster, heading straight for disaster
All my wishes unheard cause its our time, our time
down here
And the adventures
Heading always towards the summer
Just promise me one thing that you'll never ever stay tight

I'm falling faster
Heading straight for disaster
All my wishes unheard cause its our time, our time
down here

Faster, heading straight for disaster
All my wishes unheard cause its our time, our time
down here
And the adventures
Heading always towards the summer
Just promise me one thing that you'll never ever stay
tight
