i took my home over come on in and let's destroy all the things my parents worked hard for just because we're bored feel free to bring your friends even all the ones that i don't know let's try to get some girls over so we can all show off

don't worry about
growing up tonight
keep your manners at the door and things will be just fine
and sing me a song
about being young
when things get too hard
just runaway

running away
running away
running away
running away
from all responsibility, yeah!
running away
running away
running away
running away
run away....

keep your manners at the door
and sing me a song

pass up all the things you have to do
call in sick to work

and play hookey from school we'll get into my car cause we'll drive far away from here with you i'll run away
away
far away
with you i know
run away with you
i can run away with you i will run away with you
