Staying up all night cause we were drinking
Throw away all of your inhibitions
98 bottles of beer up on the wall
It's another crazy night
No more thinkin
And another crazy riot
So roll with the punches
Cause this could take awhile
And your time is almost over
It's got me runnin around
Ready to take the fall

Hey its what you wanted
Now everything seems so unclear
Hey another comment might just make me walk right out of...
Hangin tough
Cause you know that you dont like them
They're all the same
So come on lets forget them
98 bottles of beer up on the wall
And my hearts beating fast with excitement
As the night begins to end so roll with the punches
Cause this could take awhile
And your time is almost over
It's got me runing around
Ready to take the fall

Hey its what you wanted
Now everything seems so unclear
Hey another comment might just make me walk right out of here

Let's sing, let's sing
We'll sing then come around here
