Look at His Glorious Cross
Here is the gateway to Heaven
Opened at last for the lost
See such a price for the sins of mankind
And His love is paying the cost
Towering over history
Look at His Glorious Cross

When the storms had swept the crowds away
And each left with their own fears
The truth could not be seen through hate
Or through the disciple's tears
For who could know redemption's plan
Had just been realized?
And soon He would be risen
And men would turn their eyes

To Look at His Glorious Cross
Oh, Look at His Glorious Cross
Here is the gateway to Heaven
Opened at last for the lost
See such a price for the sins of mankind
And His love is paying the cost
Towering over history
Look at His Glorious Cross

I'd rather have Jesus than silver or gold
I'd rather be His than have riches untold
I'd rather have my Jesus
Than anything this world affords today

Jesus the price for the sins of mankind
And His love is paying the cost
Towering over history
Look at His Glorious cross
