She's tomorrow and the past, she's the everlast Betrayal made her fall from the Christ she adored Took a sip with the angels bewitched her roam Trust we gave to be loved and to make her obey

She's the life of the lost ones
deceiving truth above all the innocent
In neverending falling
they buried her bleeding down below

If her eyes could have seen what her hands tore apart
All the fire in her heart she took a gaze in the dark Try to face the despair she has meant on her life

She's the life of the lost ones
deceiving truth above all the innocent
In neverending falling
they buried her bleeding down below

Feels every life that she adored the pain can't keep us warm and its all hate we kept inside our souls for God

She's the life of the lost ones
deceiving truth above all the innocent
they buried her bleeding down below
