Frail as ice I shall rise for the repent you've been haunting for
Devil's smile beneath the eyes I caress Pierced to be nothing but me in the everlasting race of hate
We're blessed to breath yet I can't see why me Wish I'd never be

Nothing more than breeze within your name
Never be the storm that built me flesh and take me
away from oblivion.
[x2]

Bring me love, bring me hate I can't use them anyway
Sterilized blood of Christ won't taste Shoot me bury me hundred times, what difference does it make
We're blessed to breath, oh I can't see why me
Wish I'd never be

Nothing more than breeze within your name
away from oblivion.
[x2]

So cold when someone's near
So cold without our tears yet nothing more to seek Shoot me bury me hundred times [x2]
Shoot me and take me away from oblivion

Nothing more than breeze within your name
away from oblivion.
