"Take Me To Your Lovin' Place"

Take me to your loving place
Take me right now
With your loving touch erase
Every line that¢€™s written on my brow

Take me in your loving arms
I pray that you would
It may not be forever more
It will be for good

Don¢€™t ask me to give forever
'Cause forever is one thing I ain¢€™t got to give Worrying about forever makes me dying slow
And lady I¢€™m just dying to live

I ain¢€™t got no room for no profit of doom
Trying to scare me out of my mind
'Cause my future is in much bigger hands than mine
So lady, let¢€™s live for this time

Take me to your loving place
Take me right now
With your loving touch erase
Every line that¢€™s written on my brow

Take me in your loving arms
I pray that you would
It may not be forever more
It will be for good

Take me to your loving place
Take me right now
Take me to your loving place
Take me right now
