"Dead American"

Trench warfare dug in deep brutal bloody No retreat American dead better than red another politician with a debt on his head
Bodies ripped covered in shit Napalm blitz the City is lit Bombs blast mustard gas throat slash truncheon smash

Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey Another story about another dead
American...
Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey Another story about another dead
American...
Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey One more story about another dead American

Blitzkrieg flames buildings ablaze killings fields where the bodies decay Torture racks machine gun racks never surrender it's an all-out attack
Money whores open soars plan quiet wars behind closed doors

Clandestine games human remains cyanide genocide

Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey Another story about another dead
American...
Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey Another story about another dead
American...
Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey One more story about a dead
American
