I look into the eyes of you
I see the things you don't want me to
The things that you try to hide
But don't you know
I look deep inside
Chorus
Cuz I see through the games that you play
When you go to church on Sunday
You put on your mask and you think
It's all right to be a christian one day of the week
God looks into the heart of you
He sees your life
It's black as night
But if you ask him inside
You will find
That he will wash your sins clean and white
Chorus
Cuz I see through the games that you play
When you go to church on Sunday
You put on your mask and you think
It's all right to be a christian one day of the week
God's not here to condemn you
He just wants to let you know
That if you choose to follow Him
He'll never let you go
Chorus
Cuz I see through the games that you play
When you go to church on Sunday
You put on your mask and you think
It's all right to be a christian one day of the week
But it's not right to be a christian one day of the week
