In '82 I was the young one in the bunch Initiation started and it ended in a punch
As I got older I got scars to prove my worth More times than others I fell face first in the dirt Wo ho ho can't you see, you'll never take the gang
outta me.
Wo ho ho can't you see, you'll never take the gang
outta me.
Runt in a pack of wolves
I was nosed up to the front
I preyed on the weekend soldiers who couldn't take the hunt
Like Julius Caesar waited for the knife stuck in his back I stood so proud and tall and I won't go out like that.
Wo ho ho can't you see -- you'll never take the gang
outta me.
Wo ho ho can't you see -- you'll never take the gang
outta me.

Well all the kings before I cut down with my axe
I stood atop this world alone without a scratch
With another victory I basked right under the sun
My war was over but a new one has begun
Wo ho ho can't you see -- you'll never take the gang
outta me.
Wo ho ho can't you see -- you'll never take the gang
outta me!
