I'm feeling so inspired about the love that pours over me
And I, I can't describe it, as you overwhelm my soul
And right now I come before you
To praise the name that gives me life
And every time I run to you, you're there for me
And every time I have a wound inside you heal, you heal
And now, in this silence, I feel my heart draw near to you
And right now I come before you
To praise the name that gives me life
[4x]
And every time I run to You, You're there for me
And every time I have a wound inside you heal, you
heal [till fade]
